

Driving Directions

Val d'Isère is approximately 600 miles/10 hours from the channel ports and all but the last 15 miles is dual carriageway. Departing from Calais, follow the signs to Reims, Troyes, Dijon, Lyon, Chambéry, Albertville, Moutiers, Bourg St. Maurice and Tignes/Val d'Isère. (Remember to be very careful on the last section of the journey from Albertville into Moutiers, as the traffic police are there nearly every weekend with on the spot speeding fines.)

Take care if using a Sat Nav when travelling to Val d'Isère from Geneva. Program the route via Annecy and Albertville, otherwise the directions can you take through mountain passes that are only open during the summer.

After Bourg St. Maurice, be sure to branch right in the village of Séez. Continue further up the mountain through the villages of St. Foy and la Tuille eventually coming to a junction where the road forks again. Go straight on for Val d'Isère and not right for Tignes.

After several tunnels and a couple of miles, pass the village sign for Val d'Isère and go straight over the roundabout. After about 100 metres on the left is the Hotel Samova. The Chalet Bonjour-Athenaise is immediately after the hotel on the left.

A street map of Val d'Isère with the chalet marked can be found on <http://www.valdisere-chalet.co.uk/information/valdisere-street-map.html>

Car Parks

There are 2 council run car parks near the chalet.
P2 - Val d'Isère, La Daille car park – Indoor parking
P5 – Plaine de la Daille car park – Outdoor parking

Travelling from Bourg, the first car park is P2, underground, on the left, about 100 metres before the chalet and the second car park is P5 about 300 metres beyond the chalet on the right.
